Art Unit: 3662

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 17-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Akiyoshi et al (Pat. No. 5,617,100).

Akiyoshi et al teach a positioning information offering apparatus including a receiving unit 300, 200 to receive a signal transmitted from a satellite, and a transmission unit 200 to transmit the signal from the satellite and a positioning information of the positioning information offering apparatus.

With regard to claim 23, Akiyoshi et al teach a positioning information offering apparatus coupled with a communication station via a network, wherein the positioning information offering apparatus transmits a positioning correction information (fig. 5, TRANSMIT ERROR INFORMATION) provided from the communication station and a positioning information of the positioning information offering apparatus, the positioning correction information being obtained by processing signals received by a plurality of reference stations (A10) from a plurality of positioning satellites.

Art Unit: 3662

3. Claims 17-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Iwata et al (US 2004/0137842) or Takaharu et al (JP 2002243829).

Iwata et al teach a positioning information offering apparatus including a receiving unit 11 to receive a signal transmitted from a satellite, and a transmission unit 15, 4, 2 to transmit the signal from the satellite and a positioning information of the positioning information offering apparatus.

Takaharu et al teach a positioning information offering apparatus including a receiving unit 104 to receive a signal transmitted from a satellite, and a transmission unit 106 to transmit the signal from the satellite and a positioning information of the positioning information offering apparatus.

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

5. Claims 1-6, 9, 11-12, 25 are allowed.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Dao L. Phan whose telephone number is (571)272-6976. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 9:00-5:30.
